

Universal services involved at all levels of need

First Concerns

SEN Support

Complex

Specialist

Universal Quality First Teaching And Learning

Children and young people who have been identified as having emerging difficulties.

First Concerns

Children and young people who have been identified as having special educational needs requiring provision that is additional to and different from the mainstream curriculum.

SEN Support

Children and young people who have an EHCP and are receiving their education in specialist provision.

Specialist

Children and young people who have been identified as having significant and complex difficulties and may be in the process of an EHC needs assessment or have an EHC Plan in place.

Complex

The Cheshire East Continuum of Need for SEN